

Important information on Double or Multiple-Entry Visas

The Embassy can consider the issuance of a Double or Multiple Entry Visa only in the following cases:

When the applicant has proved:

- 1) his integrity and reliability, in particular the lawful use of his previous Cyprus' visas,
- 2) his economic situation in the country of origin,
- 3) his genuine intention to leave the territory of the Republic of Cyprus before the expiry of the visa applied for,

When the applicant can justify the intention to travel frequently and/or regularly, in particular due to his occupational or family status:

- business persons
- family members of citizens of the Union, and family members of third-country nationals legally residing in Member States.

Researchers travelling to Cyprus for the purpose of carrying out scientific research could, also, be eligible for being granted a multiple entry visa, provided that 1) they can prove that they are reliable, 2) they have already been granted a Cyprus' visa before, which they have lawfully used and 3) they can prove the need of frequent or regular travel.
