LIST OF DOCUMENTS

AIRPORT TRANSIT VISA

An airport transit visa allows you to change planes at a Dutch airport for onward travel to a destination outside the Schengen area.

Whether you need an airport transit visa depends on your nationality and any exemptions for which you may be eligible. Fill in the online application form to find out if you need a visa.

Please note: the visa does not grant entry to the Netherlands or to any other Schengen country. This means you cannot leave the airport. If you are transiting through the Netherlands to a destination within the Schengen area, you will need a short-stay Schengen visa.

For detailed information on airport transit visas, go to the website of the Dutch embassy or consulate.

DOCUMENTS REQUIRED

- Complete the online application form, print it out and take it to your appointment; The application form has to be signed by the applicant. Minor applicant under the age of 18: The application form must be signed by both parents or by a legal guardian. Please DO NOT sign the name of an underage applicant.
- Get all the documents required for your application. The checklist explains which documents you need to provide and which requirements they must meet;
- If you choose to submit your application through a representative, the following also needs to be provided:
 - Letter of authorization for visa application/passport return. The signature on the letter of authorization needs to be the same as the one in the applicant's passport and Visa application form;
 - Representative's ID Card or passport.

For every document submitted, you must provide the original (to show at the counter) and a photocopy (to be attached to the visa file). The documents must have been drawn up in (or translated into) Dutch, English, French or Spanish.

Your biometric data (fingerprints and a digital photograph) will be collected during your appointment. This will remain valid for 5 years. Some applicants, such as children under the age of 12, do not need to provide this data.

If you apply for a subsequent visa within these 5 years, you do not have to provide fingerprints again.

Please be aware, when applying for a visa at an external service provider, it cannot be checked at the desk whether your fingerprints have been stored in the systems in the past 5 years. If it turns out the Ministry of Foreign Affairs does not have your fingerprints, you will be asked to return to the External Service Provider for a second time to register your fingerprints.

Incomplete applications may not be accepted.
